Capt. O'Griglion has had quite a number of converts lately, one week he had fifteen. A week ago a man came to knee-drill to get saved, and he is quite a good soldier now, speaking at nearly every meeting and he knows what he is talking about, too. It was a rough wet day when I was

How to sell MANY "Grya."

Find out where the meeting was sold and go to the meeting and sing the song and instruct your solo singers to do the same.

Read it through yourself, then to the meeting and sing the song to the people, before singing out of it.

When a particular song takes well, do it again and sing it every night during the week.

When a solo is sung, urge the audience to join in singing the chorus.

Directly it is announced that you are going to sing out of the Was Car, advise the audience to be ready to support the people with them—say, one on the platform, and about four in the body of the church.

—In connection with the anniversary of Clanton an exhibition of these offerings was held at the Agricultural Experiment Station. Every description of produce and handicraft work were sent from the different British colonies and some foreign countries.

A Wise Decision.

—At Orangeburg, S. C., this morning the trustees have just filed a suit $5 for the disturbing an open-air meeting of the S. A. and there is so much good sense and sound law in their judgment as expressed by the following statement, that it is well to put in columns, hoping that it may have the effect of opening the eyes of unenlightened to a better plan of quelling disturbances than the one followed by the slaveholders and the Ku Klux Klan.

From Patchogue division we hear that Captain Campbell and five, Captain Kirk and three, and Captain Smith and two, are very sick. Contrabands will give them a place in their prayers.

The Contrabands express himself as much gratified and astonished at the depth and progress of the work out West; and he says that he has never seen so much business work as is being done here. Between war and pestilence, soldiers, Indians, half-breeds and Chinese make life very hard.

We hope to also hear contrabands singing "We are the people," let us have that storus over again, please!

Compensed Expressly for the WAR CRY.

1 He Will Save.

BY STAFF-CAPT. BAYON, I.O.

TUNE—"He took me in."

Behold that gentle Lamb of God,
Behold the Saviour of mankind;
It was for you He shed His blood,
You need not one be left behind.

CHORUS.

He will save, He will save,
He died to bring you back to God,
Though deep in sin you may have strayed,
And His salvation long delayed.
He will save, He will save,
He came the lost to seek and save.

Poor Mary weeping at His feet,
Her sin so great that crushed her soul;
While Simon watched her with contempt,
The Saviour loved and made her whole.

A blind man cried aloud one day,
As Jesus passed along the road;
His cries soon reached the Saviour's heart,
And there the beggar met his God.

When on the Cross the Saviour died,
A thief cried "Lord remember me";
In spite of pain He sweetly said,
"Come up to Paradise with me."

Exalted now the Prince of Peace,
A pardon offers through the blood;
Come quickly soul to Jesus now,
Come live and fight and die for God.

2 Come to Jesus Now.

BY GRACE (FRANCIS T. H.)

TUNE—"Silver Treasures amongst the Gold."

Simon, Jesus did to save you
From the guilt and power of sin,
Waits in tender love and pity,
Waits just now to take you in.
Come, come while Jesus calls you,
Soon will pass the day of grace,
Soon the Spirit cease its striving,
Soon thy Saviour's pleadings cease.

CHORUS.

Come just now, He waits to save you,
Pardon, cleanse and set you free;
Long has Satan held you fast,
Christ alone can set you free.

Jesus loves you though your sin be,
Did you ever sin to wash away;
Yes, He saw in love and pity,
How the devil held you down.

Saw there was no eye to save,
Saw there was no arm to save,
Brought upon the Cross your pardon,
When His precious life He gave.

Mercy still is found in Jesus,
And a pardon full and free,
All the past will be forgiven,
Jesus longs to set you free.

Think of all the pain and sorrow,
Borne with patience all for you;
When Jesus died to save you,
Jesus paid the debt I owed.

3 Fighting for the Lord.

BY CAPT. WOODWARD.

TUNE—"Are you washed?"

We are soldiers brave in the great S. A.,
Fighting for our Lord and King;
And we are not what the people say,
For with Christ we are bound to win.

CHORUS.

So we'll fight for our King
Till the great trumpet shall call for us
Home, abroad and then we'll sing
When we arrive at Zion.

We were drummers, chimers and harpers too
Some of the world of kinds;
But we bore the blood could wash us
Through the world of sin.

From sin of every kind,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin.

So come and try my Saviour now,
For you are not too late;
If you will at His footsteps bow,
He'll cleanse and make you glad.

So we'll fight like glads to be loyal and
In the fight of the great S. A.;
We'll work with all our might and do
What God might lead or say.

4 Jesus has Given Me Rest.

BY CAPT. ANNA D. WY.

TUNE—"My home is in Heaven."

Sweet, happy rest in Jesus is given—
Rest born on earth and a mansion in Heaven;
To all the world around me I tell,
Jesus has given me rest.

CHORUS.

My rest is in trusting in my blessed Lord,
Daily I'm learning in His precious Word,
To all the world around me I tell,
Jesus has given me rest.

I have a peace dwelling deep in my soul,
Calm as a river it ever doth flow,
And I can sing at my journey along,
Jesus has given me rest.

Trusting in Jesus sweet rest I have found,
And there the beggar met his God,
When on the Cross the Saviour died,
A thief cried "Lord remember me";
In spite of pain He sweetly said,
"Come up to Paradise with me."

Exalted now the Prince of Peace,
A pardon offers through the blood;
Come quickly soul to Jesus now,
Come live and fight and die for God.

So we'll fight for our King
Till the great trumpet shall call for us
Home, abroad and then we'll sing
When we arrive at Zion.

We were drummers, chimers and harpers too
Some of the world of kinds;
But we bore the blood could wash us
Through the world of sin.

From sin of every kind,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin.

So we'll fight for our King
Till the great trumpet shall call for us
Home, abroad and then we'll sing
When we arrive at Zion.

We were drummers, chimers and harpers too
Some of the world of kinds;
But we bore the blood could wash us
Through the world of sin.

From sin of every kind,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin.

So we'll fight for our King
Till the great trumpet shall call for us
Home, abroad and then we'll sing
When we arrive at Zion.

We were drummers, chimers and harpers too
Some of the world of kinds;
But we bore the blood could wash us
Through the world of sin.

From sin of every kind,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin.

So we'll fight for our King
Till the great trumpet shall call for us
Home, abroad and then we'll sing
When we arrive at Zion.

We were drummers, chimers and harpers too
Some of the world of kinds;
But we bore the blood could wash us
Through the world of sin.

From sin of every kind,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin.

So we'll fight for our King
Till the great trumpet shall call for us
Home, abroad and then we'll sing
When we arrive at Zion.

We were drummers, chimers and harpers too
Some of the world of kinds;
But we bore the blood could wash us
Through the world of sin.

From sin of every kind,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin.

So we'll fight for our King
Till the great trumpet shall call for us
Home, abroad and then we'll sing
When we arrive at Zion.

We were drummers, chimers and harpers too
Some of the world of kinds;
But we bore the blood could wash us
Through the world of sin.

From sin of every kind,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin,
From all the world of sin.

5 Thine Only.

BY VERONICA TOM KARE.

TUNE—"Preparations."

Oh, Lord, I come to Thee just now,
Oh, make me Thine alone!
I honestly at Thy footstool bow,
Oh, make me Thine alone.

CHORUS.

Thine only, Thine only, Lord!
Thine only,
Oh, make me Thine alone!

I give up all I have to Thee,
Oh, make me Thine alone!
My body, soul, and mind to be,
For ever Thine alone.

I'll praise Thee for Thy saving power,
And live for Thee alone;
And serve Thee wholly every hour,
And live for Thee alone.

CHORUS.

My rest is in trusting in my blessed Lord,
Daily I'm learning in His precious Word,
To all the world around me I tell,

"And their Blood will require at your hand."

WE ARE IN URGENT PRESSING NEED OF 200 VOLUNTEERS FOR THE FIELD.

From every hand the cry is coming in "Send us more help," from all quarters we have the cheering news are you coming to our town or village?

It is for the soldiers of the Canadian Wing (the 6th S.A.), to answer these questions, and answer them not only by their prayers and gifts, but with their bodies and their lives. The work is crippled in our Dominion for the lack of sufficient officers, and yet amongst our thousands of soldiers there are hundreds who might step into the breach. We want each comrade to make a personal offer of this, and to answer before God the reason that keeps them from the front.

People here have anything in a material sense to gain by volunteering are not required.

What is wanted is people who love everything to know and are willing to sacrifice all.

The road we are in is strewn with thorns, it means loneliness and friendlessness, and the devil of the world and the unfeeling selfishness of Christian people, but it is

THE CRUISE-PARTY
and the way of sorrow which the Master took. The Master went forth to seek and to save the lost, and you too the content with human and friends and comforts and all indulgence, when He needs help in the task of bringing the world to Himself? Your Comrades desire the cheer of conversation, and He says "The servant must be as his Lord."

WOUNDED AND DISEASED

Comrades, we cannot bear the thought of seeing you here, and yet we are positively sure they are going there for want of more whole-hearted, daring, disinterested conversation.

Look at the vast Army of your drunkenness, rolling, reeling, staggering down into a drunken's grave and a drunkard's hall! COMRADES RUSH FORWARD AND SAVE THEM!

Look at that fearful legion of harlots rushing on down the highway of prostitution to their early grave, to an eternal hell. COMRADES, RUSH FORWARD AND SAVE THEM!

Readers, this is your privilege, for this God saved you, for this He has or will reward you. It is for you to face your responsibility in the matter. You a Salvationist, of all others are your brother's keeper, and God made a Soldier of you, that you might fight where ever and under what circumstances He might lead you. Listen to His call or the terms shall be set to you more warily of His confidence and more willing to follow Him.

Consent, therefore, and send in your application to
